Mrs. Colette D'lima*

Citation

You have completed your degree of business management from MCC and further done MBA from NMIMS College. You single handed managed the Reliable Clothing business which is the core business of Reliable Group of Companies besides the real estate and the BPO sector.

During your college days you were fully moulded in the business and used to operate with the merchandiser department which gave you rich experience of dealing with the clients which were mostly importers, from France, Germany, and Belgium. You took over as Business Head of the Clothing Business.

You have travelled to foreign markets to understand the fashion requirements of Europe market and other countries.

In 2015 you have handled and carried the role of the clothing business which has currently 800 employees and outsourced 1500 employees, increasing the turnover in multitude and also redefining the entire business with modern technology.

You are actively involved in all decision making and review of all the other business and gives your active support to the family business to ensure that all the business were conducted well.

Your vision is to make the Reliable brand among the top business houses in India and a name to be recognized in global export market.

In recognition of your outstanding contribution as a Woman Entrepreneur
