

CHRISTIAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE & INDUSTRY

*Daniel L Sons
Excellence Award 2017
In The Field of Public Service given to Commodore Cyril Pereira*

Citation

Commodore Cyril David Pereira, you were born the second eldest amongst 11 children; schooled at St. Aloysius High School Mangalore. In 1954 joined the Indian Navy.

After initial 18 months of training at the Naval Engineering Training Establishment at Lonvala, you were selected for the 14th Joint Services Wing Course at National Defense Academy at Khadakwasala. After further training in various Naval Training Establishments both in India and for about 2 years with Royal Naval Engineering College, UK, you held several technical and administrative posts on board warships and Navy's Dockyard and various other shore establishments. Besides these several postings, you were appointed Deputy Director of the Electrical branch at the Naval Headquarter, in New Delhi in 1963. Later, you were posted as Head of Faculty (Resource Management) at the prestigious Institute of Defence Management at Secunderabad. You were then assigned the post of General Manager Corporate Planning for Mazagon Dock Ltd. Mumbai and served there for further 3 years before retirement.

Presently, you are pursuing your passion to enhance the green cover in your environment where you tend to your agricultural farmlands cultivating and experimenting in newer botanical techniques including planting rare endangered species of fauna.

In recognition of your outstanding contribution in the Field of Public Service

CHRISTIAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY
