*Electropneumatics
Excellence Award 2018
In The Field of Industry given to Capt. Thomas W. Pinto*

Citation

*C*apt. Thomas W. Pinto is a Master Mariner with an experience spanning 40 years in the shipping industry. He is the CMD of Seven Island Shipping. Of the 19 years he sailed, 9 years were in the Capacity of Master on the Indian and foreign Ships of different types and sizes. In 1998, he quit sea-life and started his second innings on the shore journey as a Marine Superintendent with Mercator Lines Ltd, where he helped them expand their shipping business. In 2002, armed with invaluable experience in every aspect of the shipping business, both at sea and on shore, Capt. Pinto founded Seven Islands Shipping – a company that was to grow rapidly to become India's second largest tanker shipping company. Recently, the Company received private equity funding from FIH Mauritius Investments Ltd an investment arm of Fairfax Financial Holdings – one of the largest Canadian investment companies. SIS proposes to use this opportunity to fund the expansion and renewal of its fleet by catering to the steadily growing demand.
